

6516207698.txt

Why would you want to inhibit people from information that could save time, money and possible injury. As a XM subscriber this is the only radio that I listen to. So as to weather and traffic it is a nice option for people to be able to find out alternative routes to get home or pick up there kids from school. And what about the weather why would you want to put drivers on the road in danger of a storm. Please let XM Radio offer the services the have.

Jim Norman

Tulsa, OK